AN ACT
PROVIDING FOR THE CONDONATION OF PENALTIES FOR UNPAID SOCIAL SECURITY SYSTEM CONTRIBUTIONS OF HOUSEHOLD EMPLOYERS RELATIVE TO REPUBLIC ACT NO. 7655, ENTITLED "AN ACT INCREASING THE MINIMUM WAGE OF HOUSEHELPERS, AMENDING FOR THE PURPOSE ARTICLE 143 OF PRESIDENTIAL DECREE NO. 442, AS AMENDED" AND REPUBLIC ACT NO. 10361, ALSO KNOWN AS THE "DOMESTIC WORKERS ACT" OR "BATAS KASAMBAHAY"

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The enactment of RA 10361 or the "Kasambahay Law" in 2013 was intended to extend social protection coverage to the househelp in every Filipino home. The implementation however of the same law created an abyss which by operation presented an unforeseen hardship for the low and middle income families to comply with. While all laws must essentially be made prospective in its application, the impending registration of the kasambahay in every household which is mandated by the said law brought to fore its legal implication with an earlier crafted law - Republic Act 7655, entitled "An Act Increasing the Minimum Wage of Househelpers, Amending for the Purpose Article 143 of Presidential Decree No. 442, as Amended" which mandatorily required for the membership of the kasambahay under the SSS law. The contract of employment and the act of registration in the barangays reflecting the actual date of employment of the kasambahays will now give rise for action by SSS to demand from the employers the payment of contributions in arrears, impose sanctions by way of interests and penalties for delinquencies and maybe upon finding by courts of refusal to pay these contributions, by imprisonment under Section 28 (e) of the SSS Law.

According to the records of the SSS, the number of househelpers who have registered for membership in 1993 when RA 7655 was enacted, was merely 5,175. In the year 2013 when the law took effect, registrants rose to 114,580. By the end of 2014, total household kasambahays who have become SSS members were a total of 123,402. The numbers would still be rising if the government provides an incentive for employers through the implementation of a program that will lay-out easier payment plans, waiving the sanctions for delinquent contributions, and providing greater access for enrollment of their househelp under the SSS law. This was in fact the recommendation of the National Tripartite Industrial Peace Council (NTIPC), acting as the oversight body implementing the IRR of the Kasambahay Law in its Resolution No. 9 issued in 2013.

It is the intent of this bill to make a prospective application of the law while at the same time affording the kasambahays the benefit and mantle of protection which the social insurance extends. It will likewise help employers in the low and middle-income families to consolidate their resources to be able to pay for the contributions that may have fallen due even before the year 2013, in order to extend to their kasambahays the coverage benefit of the SSS law.

The fundamental precept of social justice is that "those who have less in life must have more in law." Social justice commands the protection by the state, as well as its forgiveness of the less fortunate members of the society. Hence, we recommend the immediate passage of this bill
