EXPLANATORY NOTE

Education is a primary tool that must be given the highest priority for the core benefit of our people. An economically independent society is the stepping stone to combined productivity that leads to economic growth of the nation.

The City of Valenzuela is one of the fast-growing economy and development sites in the National Capital Region, and as its population grows, a National High School in Barangay Paso De Blas must be created and pursued in order to culminate a viable educational program for the youth.

Due to the foregoing, passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
