AN ACT
GRANTING PHILIPPINE CITIZENSHIP TO WONSUK HEO

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This bill seeks to grant Philippine citizenship to Mr. Wonsuk Heo. With over three (3) decades of residency, Mr. Heo, fondly known as Simon in the Philippines, has immersed himself in Filipino culture despite being born a national of Incheon, Republic of Korea in 1978.¹

Being a permanent resident holder since 1997, Simon has since established a family in the Philippines, residing in a condominium in Makati City with his wife of twelve (12) years and his two (2) children.² Both children were born in the Philippines and enrolled in International School Manila.³

Simon is currently a Director of BCH Holding Co., Inc. and Canal Holdings, Inc., domestic corporations primarily engaged in investing in, purchasing, developing, and selling real and personal properties.⁴ He is also a Director of Eaglestar Marine (Philippines) Corporation, a manning agency duly licensed and authorized by the Philippine Overseas Employment Administration (POEA) to engage in the business of recruiting and providing manpower for maritime vessels in Philippine and foreign ports.⁵

During his stay in the Philippines, Simon has demonstrated his desire to learn and embrace Philippine language, customs, traditions, and ideals not only through his professional engagement in various domestic corporations, but also through his continuous and conscious effort to maintain good reputation and friendship among his Filipino peers and business associates. Through his frequent interactions with Filipinos, Simon has become conversant in both English and Tagalog.⁶

Simon's business acumen and continuous service in an essential industry in the Philippines is testament to his allegiance to the Philippines and dedication to the betterment of Filipinos.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate passage of this measure is earnestly sought.
